

2019 MEKONG RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

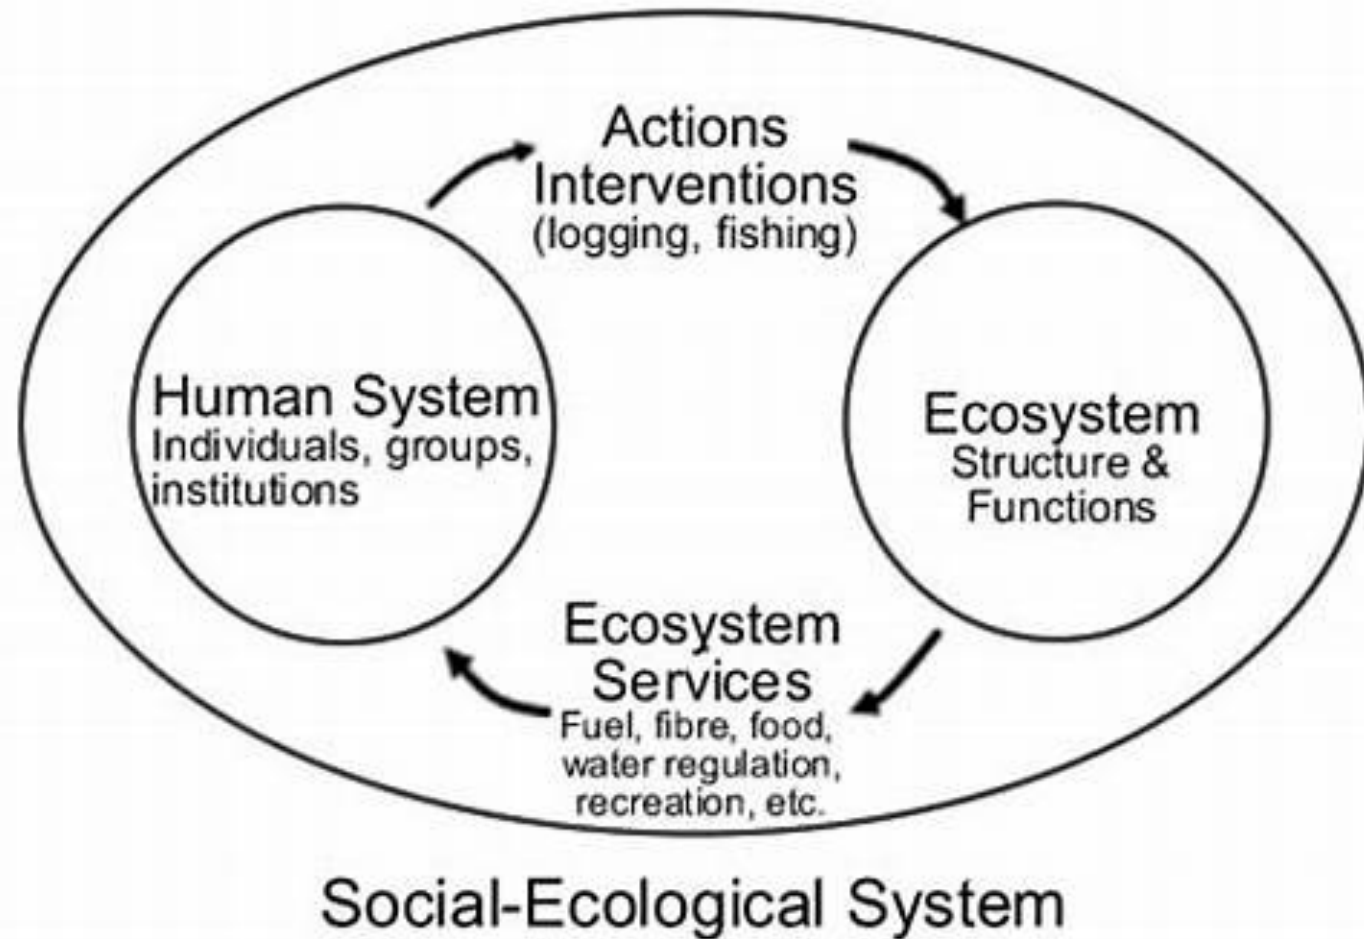

SESSION 3: SOCIOECONOMICS AND STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

DECEMBER 16, 2019

SESSION 3 OBJECTIVES

- Consider the role and importance of social and economic data and analysis in river management
- Provide an update on the status of social and economic data collection and analysis in the Lower Mekong.
- Collect ideas from the presenters and the audience about social and economic data needs and priority issues.
- Consider how we can improve science-based decisions with collaboration and innovation.

SOCIAL-ECOLOGICAL SYSTEMS

SESSION 3 LOGISTICS

- Remarks from Sup about needs of Mekong socioeconomic data, and background of the Mekong Water Data Experts Meeting.
- Three presentations about social and economic data and research in the Lower Mekong
- Group discussions of questions about social and economic research and data needs.
- Reporting out from groups.